

Call for Participation: WV150 History & Art Parade A West Virginia Sesquicentennial Celebration

DEADLINE: June 1, 2013

WV150 History & Art Parade is to be a street spectacle that embraces creativity and the Sesquicentennial spirit through music, dance, art and self expression. Visual artists, performers, musicians, reenactors, Art Cars, civic groups, individuals, businesses and local organizations that celebrate creativity within the community are invited to celebrate the rich history and 150th Birthday of West Virginia.

Rules and Requirements:

Date:	WV150 History & Art Parade will be held on Saturday, June 22, 2013
Time:	10:00am
Route:	Downtown Kanawha Blvd to the West Virginia Capitol Grounds The parade route is approximately 1.8 miles.

Participants are invited to create a visual art piece that can be worn, walked, carried, pulled or performed while traveling along the WV150 History & Art Parade route. Floats, bikes, wagons, decorated vehicles, wheeled platforms, etc. are all acceptable.

Participants are encouraged to touch upon the rich history and story of West Virginia.

- ALL PARADE PARTICIPANTS MUST SUBMIT AN ENTRY FORM. Applicants will be contacted within a week of the application being submitted. Further instructions will be emailed upon review.
- FestivALL and WV 150 Committee Officials reserve the right to refuse any entry at any time.
- Profanity and nudity are prohibited. All entries must be suitable for family viewing.
- Participants may supply music, but equipment will not be provided for you.
- Parade will be held rain or shine. Only a significant act of nature will cancel the parade.
- No entries may present a safety hazard to participants or audience.
- Entries including children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult chaperone.

Call for Participation: WV150 History & Art Parade A West Virginia Sesquicentennial Celebration

WV150 History & Art Parade Entry Form

WV150 History & Art Parade Entry/Group Name:

Team Leader(s):

Team Leader Email and Phone Number:

Team Leaders Mailing Address:

Number of People Participating: (we understand that this number might fluctuate)

Project Description:

If you have any supporting materials such as photos or sketches, please include them.
Please note if you plan on utilizing a vehicle, as this needs to be approved ahead of time.

Call for Participation:
WV150 History & Art Parade
A West Virginia Sesquicentennial Celebration

Applications must be postmarked no later than June 1, 2013.
Please submit all entry forms and supporting material by email or mail to:

WV150 History & Art Parade Coordinator

FestivALL Charleston

1419 Bigley Avenue

Charleston, West Virginia 25302

304-729-4ART (4278)

FestivallArtParade@gmail.com

Please check out www.festivallcharleston.com and www.wv150.com for a full schedule of events and activities!

